KNOCKED OUT.

The Glen Allen kaolin company gets no road.

Some time ago the Glen Allen Kaolin company paid F. H. Funkey $50 for one year road right of way over his land between the company's mines and clay washer near Glen Allen. At last week's term of circuit court S. L. Jacques petitioned the county for a private road over the land. As the statute provides that the petitioner in such case must be a resident of the state the grant was refused on the ground that Mr. Jacques is a Chicago man. A new petition by Herman T. Hesse, owner of the clay lands will be presented to the court at its February term.

GLEN ALLEN NEWS.

Robert Berryman is getting better.

Arthur Sander is worse at this time.

More sickness in town. Drain those sloughs!

Mr. and Mrs. Sander are very ill with pneumonia.

Judge Stevens is opening up some clay mines on his farm.

Willie Riley is very sick, and his sister Kate is no better.

Farmers in this vicinity have about finished gathering corn.

The program for the next literary society meeting will be very interesting one.

Some thief stole about $30 worth of carpenter tools from Judge Zimmerman a few nights ago.

We invite the next meeting of the institute to Glen Allen. Come, teachers, you will be well entertained.

The sickness in Glen Allen ought to alarm her people, and prompt them to immediately drain those stagnant sloughs that encircle the town. Drain them at once.

The teachers and pupils of the Glen Allen school were highly pleased with the visit of the editor of the Press to their school and society.

An effort will be made to get Prof. Leoffer to visit us.

Twenty pounds of light brown sugar for $1 at Sample & Kinder's.

FOOLED THE EDITOR.

Rev. J. H. Henley Failed to Appear.

The great walk of J. H. Henley last Monday failed to interest the people for the very simple reason that he did not walk.

Every preparation was made by this paper for the walk, but Mr. Henley failed to appear, or to let the editor know as to his whereabouts. The editor has heard nothing from him since.

No doubt several hundred people were disappointed. They were not nearly so badly disappointed as the editor was. We are out several dollars, in cash, and have faithfully advertised the matter. It is not the wish of this paper to be known as unreliable, and it has acted in good faith, in this matter, Mr. Henley not only failed to fill his contract, but has offered no explanation. That is all that can be said.

A Wedding Anniversary.

Just fifteen years ago last Tuesday Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Biggs joined hearts and hands for better or for worse, and it has proved for better if one may judge from the happy and pretty home they now have. Last Monday they invited a few of their gentleman friends to dinner. The company was composed of Drs. E. P. Biggs and J. A. Reck, Mason F. Kinder, L. A. Goodwin, J. O. Smith, G. C. Lesley and Tom Allen. The elegant dining room was neatly arranged and the sumptuous table was a splendid scene. There was no dearth of delicious edibles, and no hesitancy about appropriating them. If another fifteen years of married life will insure such a repast, may they live to see them. Talk about marriage being a failure. Its all bosh.

Gone Up in Smoke.

If your money does go that way, you get value received if you buy cigars at Biggs & Smith's. They are THE cigar dealers of the county.

J. M. Allen came up from Cape Girardeau last Tuesday.

A Good School.

The editor last Friday and Friday evening visited the Glen Allen public school, in response to an invitation from the school. Mr. Allen is an excellent teacher and is doing good work at Glen Allen. The pupils were found earnest and energetic and the school in good discipline. The society at night was very interesting. In addition to a number of good declamations by the smaller pupils, the older ones debated the question "Resolved that there is more pleasure in married life than in single life," the decision being made for the affirmative.

Something for Nothing.

You don't exactly get that at Jones, but it's about the same thing. With every can of Taylor's Baking powders you get a prize. It's no lottery; you buy the powder and select your prize, which consist of stand tables, glassware, chinaware, moustache cups, etc. The powder is full weight and the best made.
